bind / bound / bound [baɪnd / baʊnd / baʊnd]
bind (sb) to (do sth)
unite [juˈnaɪt]

It's bound to happen.

Why do bank robbers sometimes bind up security guards when breaking into a bank? | Bank robbers sometimes bind up security guards in order not to be disturbed when breaking into the bank safe.

What kind of things bind people together? | Common hobbies or shared experiences bind people together.

Are you bound by an agreement after you've signed it? | Yes, you're bound by an agreement after you've signed it.

When are you bound to pay the rent for your house? | I'm bound to pay the rent for my house at the beginning of each month.

What are you bound by law to do when you're a witness to a road accident? | You're bound by law to help the victims and inform the police when you're a witness to a road accident.

What's bound to happen when you come to a curve in the road and you don't adjust your speed accordingly? | You're bound to have an accident when you come to a curve in the road and you don't adjust your speed accordingly.

Do you know anyone who can unite being charming with being determined? Who is it? | Yes, I know someone who can unite being charming with being determined. It's my boss.

flow [fləʊ]
cash flow [kæʃ fləʊ]
roadworks [ˈrəʊdwɜːks]

Which sea does the Nile flow into? | The Nile flows into the Mediterranean Sea. [medɪtəˈreɪniən]

What's likely to happen if we don't bind up a deep cut and we let the blood flow from the wound? | If we don't bind up a deep cut and we let the blood flow from the wound, the person's likely to bleed to death.

What can interrupt the flow of traffic in a city? | An accident or roadworks can interrupt the flow of traffic in a city.

▶ ▶ ▶

Does the Internet enable a free flow of information?	Yes, the Internet enables a free flow of information.
Why's it so important for a company to maintain a good cash flow?	It's so important for a company to maintain a good cash flow because otherwise they may have problems paying their bills on time.

dense [dens]
densely ['densli]
populated ['pɒpjuleɪtɪd]
urban ['ɜːbən]
rural ['rʊərəl]

Is water denser than air?	Yes, water's denser than air.
What do drivers switch on in dense fog to be visible?	Drivers switch on fog lights in dense fog to be visible.
Are rural areas more densely populated than urban ones?	No, rural areas aren't more densely populated than urban ones.
Why are urban areas more damaging to the environment than rural ones?	Urban areas are more damaging to the environment than rural ones because they produce more household and industrial waste.
How can urban life affect our health?	Urban life can affect our health by leading to different stress-related illnesses.
How does the urban environment of Rome differ from that of New York?	The urban environment of Rome differs from that of New York because Rome reminds one more of an ancient town, with no modern buildings in the city centre, whereas New York has many skyscrapers.